

LABORCRYPTO TOKEN SALE. TOGETHER, WE THRIVE.

THE GLOBAL FREELANCE PEER-TO-PEER ECOSYSTEM THAT SHARES REVENUE.

Gig Economy Experience + Blockchain Computing Decentralization

LaborCrypto™ is a light touch administrator in a people-powered freelance work ecosystem. Our algorithms match users with each other to hire and promote freelance work. LaborCrypto is the next iteration of ChoreRelief™, a successful platform that's streamlined gig economy matchmaking. Building on that experience and applying the power of blockchain smart contracts Laborcrypto decentralizes corporate power structures and gives freelancers greater economic power and the people who hire them.

We believe in challenging the status quo and empowering people.

As the first freelance platform backed by blockchain technology that shares revenue with its users, LaborCrypto combines the benefits of an employee-owned company with those of being self-employed. The result is a decentralized, peer-to-peer solution that solves the large flaws inherent in existing gig platforms.

OUR ROADMAP

- APRIL 2018: Expansion of development team and strategic consultants to enhance execution of milestones.
- MAY 2018: ICO Launch
- AUG 2018: Start the development of platform and tokenization to ensure ecosystem is fully equipped. Applying for relevant permissions and licenses.
- SEPT. 2018: Build API and SDK for coin deployment as a method of payment for other gig platforms
- Q1 2019: Initial alpha and beta testing of the platform.
- Q2 2019: Finalize the platform and start transacting.

LABORCRYPTO MARKET POSITION

LaborCrypto's strong position and industry experience combined with blockchain technology will offer users lower fees, more incentives, additional revenue streams, higher quality freelancers and unique platform features. LaborCrypto™ will be able to position its product and services in a highly competitive manner. 25% of the funds raised during the Initial Coin Offering (ICO) will be invested in further development of LaborCrypto™. Additionally, funds will be allocated specifically to upgrade the server infrastructure to manage the growing traffic and expansion of LaborCrypto™ in many more countries.

MARKET SIZE: CONSUMPTION OF FREELANCE SERVICES

"Freelancers now make up 35% of U.S. workers and collectively earned $1 trillion in the past year, according to the "Freelancing in America": 2016" survey released this morning by the Freelancers Union, based in New York City, and the giant freelancing platform Upwork." - Forbes

THE LABORCRYPTO TOKEN

The LBR is an ERC20-compatible decentralized cryptocurrency. Using the Ethereum blockchain, we are creating this token for use on the LaborCrypto™ platform as a currency exchange between Consumers and Service Providers worldwide. As we expand, the LBR will be made available to other freelancer platforms and will become an essential choice of payment. We will be partnering with other freelancer platforms to offer the integration of LBR.
